

Ean White

Board of Advisors

Ean P. White is an attorney and a Major in the US Army Reserve. During his career as a Judge Advocate (JAG) in both the active and reserve components, he has personally provided advice to senior level commanders, staff officers, and military law enforcement officers, in garrison and deployed environments, concerning all aspects of law and Army policy. Additionally, he has served as a military prosecutor and Special Assistant United States Attorney, prosecuting a variety of offenses under the Uniform Code of Military Justice and United States Code. He also served as a Military Magistrate reviewing search authorization requests from law enforcement and conducting pretrial confinement hearings.

In March 2012, he left active duty to take a position as a legal advisor to a major municipal law enforcement agency in Arizona, handling various issues of criminal law, contract law, constitutional law, and civil litigation. He is his unit's resident legal expert on firearms laws and regulations, and he also works regularly with his agency's gun enforcement squad on firearms cases. Ean resides in Phoenix, Arizona, with his wife and children.
