

Modern Day Pistol Instructor Development

December 6, 2022 / Gilroy, CA
Hosted by Gilroy Police Dept.

$200.00

This 1-day / 8-hour instructor development course focuses on covering topics that are either rarely addressed in training or controversial in nature. The goal is to give instructors a platform to discuss concepts and try new techniques to broaden their knowledge and experience, even if their agency would not adopt the concepts or techniques that are covered. This is a free-flowing class, meaning the course instructors will cover any topics the students want to discuss.

Topics Covered:

- Discussion about firearms safety rules
- Discussion about range safety rules
- Discussion about marksmanship fundamentals
- Precision vs practical shooting
- Reloads & malfunction clearances
- Shooting from cover
- Injured officer techniques
- Close quarter techniques
- Other topics as requested by students

Required Equipment:

- Pistol, magazines, and duty or belt holster
- 400 rounds of pistol ammo
- Knee pads (optional)
- Hat with a brim
- Eye & ear protection
- Hydration fluids and snacks
