

Andrew Butts

Staff Instructor

Andrew Butts has been a Federal law enforcement officer since 1998 and a certified firearms instructor with his agency since 1999. He is currently the firearms program manager for his work group. He spent almost five years at his agency's basic academy and also worked for nearly a year in the instructor training program.

Andrew has worked a variety of patrol duties throughout his career and served as part of his agency's special response team and search and rescue team. He has received training in tactical tracking, rural patrol techniques, high risk vehicle stops and VIP/dignitary protection.

Andrew has an Associate of Applied Science Degree in Police Science from Sheridan Junior College in Sheridan, WY. He previously served in the Army National Guard and is a member of NLEFIA as well as USPSA and IDPA. Andrew is an Endowment Life Member of the National Rifle Association.