

Jordan Spencer

Staff Instructor

Jordan has been with the Cowlitz County Sheriff's Office in Washington State since 2007 and has been the agency Rangemaster and Training Coordinator since 2011. Jordan is the lead firearms instructor for his agency and is responsible for the live-fire, force-on-force training, and Taser training conducted at his agency. In addition, Jordan has extensive experience as his agency's lead marine patrol officer/trainer and Search and Rescue Incident Commander.

Over the past 5 years Jordan has taken his agency's firearms training from static stand-and-shoot courses of fire to enhanced live-fire tactics with movement, communication, moving targets, and higher accountability. Jordan started his agencies Active Shooter Response program, as well as live-fire vehicular assault and CQB programs.

Jordan holds instructor certificates from the Washington State Criminal Justice Training Commission in Advanced Handgun, Patrol Rifle, and Shotgun as well as Instructor certificates for Active Shooter Response, Taser, and Scenario Based Training. Jordan has conducted and trained in extensive live-fire, active shooter, and force-on-force training courses and holds several armorers certificates for patrol duty weapons. Jordan is a graduate of the Force Science Institute and a member of the Lower Columbia Regional SWAT Team.

Jordan is the chairperson for his agencies use of force review committee, was the lead author in his agencies updated use of force policy, and was responsible for training his department on updated use of force protocols.

Jordan has a passion for firearms training both at the instructor level and as a student by attending as much outside instruction as possible from some of the industry's leading instructors. Jordan is a graduate from St. Martins University with a BA in Criminal Justice.

Jordan is an active member with the Washington State Law Enforcement Firearms Instructor Association (WSLEFIA), ILEETA, NLEFIA, and NRA.
