

Paul Wood

Staff Instructor

Paul Wood is a sergeant with Fort Collins Police Services in Colorado. He has 28 years of law enforcement experience and 26 years of experience as a police firearms instructor. He has served as the Firearms Training Unit Coordinator (Rangemaster) in his agency since 2006. Paul is a certified instructor in handgun, rifle, and shotgun and holds certifications as a tactical shooting instructor and live-fire shoot house instructor. He is currently a Colorado POST full skills instructor for firearms. Sgt. Wood has been an NRA Law Enforcement certified instructor in various disciplines since 2000 and is a Charter Member and Staff Instructor for the National Law Enforcement Firearms Instructor's Association (NLEFIA). He has served on 16 use of force review boards as a subject matter expert in firearms for officer involved shootings and critical incidents. Paul is also a certified Rangemaster and has significant experience working on and managing both indoor and outdoor range environments.

