

Peter Harvey

Staff Instructor

Peter Harvey is a 21-year retired Marine Master Sergeant who served with Division Reconnaissance units, Force Reconnaissance units, and Marine Special Operations Command (MARSOC). He conducted combat operations in Kosovo, Iraq, and Afghanistan throughout his career. He also served as a reserve sheriff's deputy for Douglas County Sheriffs Office in Minden, NV. There he served as a jail and patrol deputy.

While serving in the reconnaissance and Force Reconnaissance communities, Peter served as a CQB team member, explosive breacher, CQB element leader, platoon sergeant, and company operations chief. While assigned to these units he conducted combat operations in Kosovo and three tours in Iraq. While assigned to 1st Marine Special Operations Battalion, Marine Special Operations Command he served as a Direct Action Special Reconnaissance Team Leader and deployed to Afghanistan.

Peter is currently a certified NLEFIA Shoot House Instructor, NRA Patrol Rifle and Tactical Shooting Instructor. He is a current member with the NRA, NTOA, and NLEFIA and he also currently works as an adjunct firearms instructor for Team Crucible in Fredericksburg, VA.

