

Rick Hudson

Staff Instructor

Rick Hudson is currently a full-time police officer in Northern, CA. He has over 15 years of law enforcement experience and 8 years of experience in the US Marine Corps. Rick is currently assigned as a Range Instructor at his agency and a Sniper for their SWAT Team. Rick is a Precision rifle, Less Lethal munitions, Use of Force, Firearms Instructor, NRA Law Enforcement Firearms Instructor and California POST Certified Instructor. He is also a Colt AR-15, Glock, Remington 870 and Accuracy International armorer.

Rick has trained police and military personnel for over 15 years providing expert instruction in the classroom, live fire ranges and reality based training. He has also taught active shooter, deployment of the police sniper and use of the tactical patrol rifle. He presents firearms training at the basic, advanced and instructor development levels. His military training and experience includes PMI (Primary Marksmanship Instructor) and MOUT (Military Operations Urban Terrain) Instructor and deployment overseas.

Rick has written numerous firearms trainings for his department including the development of the department's Less Lethal program. In order to improve his instructor and shooting skills, he attends updated firearms instructor development courses for the range and classroom as well as Law Enforcement shooting competitions.

Rick is known for creating professional and concise instruction during training. He has a great knowledge base of the use of firearms and has the ability to understand student's individual skill levels and instructs them at their level. Rick strives to meet the needs of the student in a comfortable learning environment to further develop the student's ability and knowledge base.

